

MEMORANDUM

TO: Department of Energy
FROM: Plumbing Manufacturers Institute
DATE: August 31, 2010
RE: Ex Parte Communication

This memo memorializes the meeting between the Plumbing Manufacturers Institute and the Department of Energy on August 31, 2010 for inclusion in the public docket. The purpose of the meeting was to provide the Department information about the adverse economic impacts of the draft interpretive rule setting forth the Department's views on the definition of "showerhead" in 10 C.F.R. § 430.2, which was noticed in the Federal Register on May 19, 2010. The Plumbing Manufacturers Institute is also submitting supplemental comments in writing to the Department.

The meeting attendees were as follows:

Scott Harris, Department of Energy
Wes Anderson, Department of Energy
Laura Barhydt, Department of Energy
Michael McCabe, Department of Energy
Stephanie Weiner, Department of Energy
Kathryn Kusske Floyd, Dorsey & Whitney LLP
Barbara Higgs, Plumbing Manufacturers Institute
Lee Mercer, Moen Incorporated
Stephanie Salmon, Waterman & Associates
Craig Selover, Masco Corporation
Steven Westphal, Kohler Co.
Robert Zimmerman, Kohler Co.