

Environmental Management Public Outreach Summary
Department of Energy, Idaho Operations Office
April 2014- July 2014
Compiled for the July 10, 2014, Citizens Advisory Board Meeting

Formal Public Interaction

- April 9: INL Citizens Advisory Board Meeting: Idaho Falls, Idaho
- April 30: Congressional Nuclear Cleanup Caucus Briefing: U.S. Department of Energy, Idaho Cleanup Project Deputy Manager Jim Cooper, CH2M-WG Idaho President and CEO Tom Dieter, and Idaho Treatment Group President and Project Manager Danny Nichols discussed cleanup accomplishments and upcoming challenges at the 2014 Nuclear Cleanup Caucus in Washington, D.C.
- June 3: Public Comment Period Opens: The public comment opened for the permit modification request (PMR) for the Secondary Sodium System tank system storage unit associated with demolition activities at Experimental Breeder Reactor-II. The public comment period closes on August 1, 2014.
- June 11: Public Meeting: The U.S. Department of Energy and environmental cleanup contractor CH2M-WG Idaho held a public meeting in Idaho Falls to discuss the permit modification request for the sodium distillation project at Idaho Nuclear Technology and Engineering Center.
- June 23: U.S. Department of Energy News Release: The Department of Energy issued a news release naming the newly appointed INL Citizen's Advisory Board members.
- June 25: Public Meeting: The U.S. Department of Energy and environmental cleanup contractor CH2M-WG Idaho held a public meeting in Idaho Falls to discuss the permit modification request (PMR) for the Secondary Sodium System tank system storage unit associated with demolition activities at Experimental Breeder Reactor-II.
- July 1: Idaho Cleanup Project News Release: CH2M-WG, Idaho, LLC issued a news release announcing that they had, recently completed a technically challenging sodium-treatment project seven weeks ahead of schedule at the Experimental Breeder Reactor-II.

Additional Community Interaction

- May 20: Update meeting with Idaho Falls Congressional staff: U.S. Department of Energy, Idaho Cleanup Project Deputy Manager Jim Cooper and Jim Malmo, Assistant Manager for Waste Disposition, met with local congressional staff to update them on the status of the Advanced Mixed Waste Treatment Project and potential Waste Isolation Pilot Project shutdown impacts.

Upcoming Formal Public Interaction

- July 28: LINE Commission Meeting: Leadership In Nuclear Energy Commission Meeting: Idaho Governor Otter's LINE Commission will host a meeting in Idaho Falls
- August 1: Public Comment Period Closes: The public comment closes for the permit modification request (PMR) for the Secondary Sodium System tank system storage unit associated with demolition activities at Experimental Breeder Reactor-II.
- July 22/23: Senator Risch Staff Tour: Suzanne Wrasse, Press Secretary and Alex Curd, Legislative Assistant will tour DOE's Idaho Site and meet with contractors.