

Environmental Management Public Outreach Summary Department of Energy, Idaho Operations Office
May2011-June 2011

Compiled for the July12th Citizens Advisory Board Meeting

Formal Public Interaction

- May 17th-18th: INL Citizens Advisory Board Idaho Site Tour and Meeting : Idaho Falls, Idaho
- June 27th: Public Comment Period Closed: The public comment period for the Draft Environmental Impact Statement for Greater Than Class C Low-Level Radioactive Waste and GTCC-Like Waste closed.

Additional Community Interaction

- May 24th: Public Information Briefing: The INL Community Outreach Campaign held a public briefing in Meridian, Idaho. The briefing focused on INL Safety and Emergency Preparedness
- May 24th: Idaho Statesman: Idaho Site Manager, Rick Provencher, met with representatives from the Idaho Statesman to discuss progress being made at the Idaho Site.
- May 31st: Public Information Briefing: The INL Community Outreach Campaign held a public briefing in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. The briefing focused on INL Safety and Emergency Preparedness
- June 23rd: Bonneville Historical Society Presentation Idaho Site Manager, Rick Provencher gave an Idaho Site Historical Overview presentation to the Bonneville Historical Society and members of the public.
- June 29: Up n' Atom Breakfast: Idaho Site Manager Rick Provencher, and Deputy Manager for the Idaho Cleanup Project, James Cooper spoke at the Partnership for Science and Technology Up n' Atom breakfast.

Upcoming Formal Public Interaction

- July-August: Keep Yellowstone Nuclear Free Tour: Keep Yellowstone Nuclear Free director James Powell has requested a tour of the Idaho Cleanup Project. The tour is expected to occur this summer
- September: INL Citizens Advisory Board Meeting: Idaho Falls, Idaho
- July: Issue of Draft Report: The Blue Ribbon Commission on spent nuclear fuel and high-level waste is expected to issue for public review and comment its draft report.