| 12. | If access to Secret Restricted Data is being requested, state by number and title each category of information listed in Appendix A to 10 CFR Part 725 as amended to which access is requested, and the detailed reasons why the application needs access to each category of information. The need for Secret Information should be stated by describing its proposed use in specific research, design, planning, construction, manufacturing, or operating projects, in activities under licenses issued by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission; in studies or evaluations planned or underway; or work or services to be performed for other organizations. |
