

Project Cypress Southwest

Project Cypress Southwest is a joint effort between direct air capture technology developer, Climeworks Corporation, and Battelle Memorial Institute.

Location

- Approximately two miles SE of Vinton, LA
- Proposed on private land next to the Port of Vinton

Funding

- Combination of private and proposed federal investments

Facilities

- Built in several stages
- First stage designed to capture 300 KTA of CO₂
- Full facility designed to capture 1,000 KTA of CO₂

Service Providers

- Entergy: source of low-carbon power
- CapturePoint Solutions: transport & storage of CO₂

